Bountiful City Appoints Edward Biehler as New Police Chief

Bountiful, Utah – Bountiful City leaders have selected Edward Biehler as the new Police Chief of Bountiful City. Biehler has spent his entire 25-year law enforcement career as an officer at Bountiful PD and was most recently the Assistant Chief. “Chief Biehler was the obvious choice and clear-cut best candidate,” said City Manager Gary Hill, who oversaw the recruitment process. “Ed has helped institute a culture of community-first policing over the last many years and represents everything we have come to expect of police officers in Bountiful.”

Biehler replaces longtime chief Tom Ross, who held the post for over 12 years before being appointed as the Executive Director of the Utah Commission on Criminal and Juvenile Justice by Governor Spencer Cox.

The Bountiful City Council will recognize both Biehler and Ross at the February 23rd Council Meeting at 7:00 pm. The Meeting will be held in the newly renovated City Hall located at 795 South Main Street.
