WINTER FAQs:

PARKING ORDINANCE & SNOW REMOVAL

Overnight parking on Bountiful City streets is prohibited from 2:00 a.m. to 6:00 a.m., November 1 – March 31, so our snowplow crews can safely and efficiently clear the roads.

Please don't shovel or blow snow into the street - it's unsafe, unlawful*, and undoes the plows' hard work! Visit our website for more info.

LANDFILL HOURS

Heads up, Bountiful residents! Our Landfill is operating on Winter Hours from November 1 to March 31. We're open Monday – Saturday, 8:00 AM to 5:00 PM, but please remember: all vehicles must be in line by 4:40 PM.

Plan your visit accordingly! More details at: <https://www.bountifulutah.gov/Landfill>

CHRISTMAS TREE PICKUP

Pickup Dates: Jan. 12th - 16th

What to do:

- Remove all lights and decorations
- Lay your tree down & place it on your park strip or curb
- Only natural (green waste) trees will be picked up

Street Crews will pick up trees as they go through their routes - this may not be on your regular garbage day.

CARPENTERS PLATINUM

Join us for a wonderful evening of music at our Spring Concert featuring Carpenters Platinum on March 28 at 7:00 p.m. at Woods Cross High School. Enjoy the timeless hits you know and love in this special live performance.

Ticket information and additional details will be available soon on the City website - stay tuned!

BDAC - BRAVE LIKE EVE

"Brave Like Eve," is an evocative and timely group exhibition that highlights the power and complexity of women's voices in art. Featuring the perspectives of Latter-Day Saint Women Artists, this exhibition reimagines the iconic figure of Eve.

CRIME PREVENTION REMINDERS

Lock your car and home every time - even for short trips. Leave valuables at home when possible, lock gym lockers, and never leave personal items unattended in public spaces. Be alert for scams, especially online or by phone. If something seems suspicious, trust your instincts and don't engage. Stay safe and aware!
